

Wildlife scenes by Craig Carlson

Craig W. Carlson, is a native Davenport artist. He has shown work at Beaux Arts, Davenport; Burlington Snake Alley, Burlington; Clinton Art in the Park; Des Moines Art in the Park; Fort Madison Art in the Park; Galesburg Art in the Park; Left Bank Spring Invitational, Moline; Left Bank Art League Holiday, Bettendorf; Riverssance Art Festival, Davenport; St. Charles Arts & Crafts Show, St. Charles, Ill.; Walcott Arts & Crafts Show, Walcott; Yesteryears Arts & Crafts, DeWitt.

Awards he has received over the years are:

In 1989 he received the Best of Show (Judge's Honor) at the Clinton Art in the Park and a first place in the Professional 2D Art Category in the Wildlife Art and Photography Show in Andalusia, Ill.

In 1988 he received second place in the Iowa Habitat Stamp Contest, Best of Show in the Burlington Snake Alley and a Purchase Award in the Galesburg Art in the Park.

In 1987 he received Best of Show (Honorable Mention) at the Clinton Art in the Park.

He was scheduled for exhibition at Clinton Art Gallery for April, 1990.

After the Storm — Whitetail Deer